ARTICLE III

Term

The term of this Agreement shall commence on the first day of the month after execution hereof and shall continue in effect thereafter for a primary term of twelve (12) months, subject to Supplier's continued compliance with the requirements outlined in Section VII of the Company's tariff, as may be amended from time to time. Thereafter, this Agreement shall continue from month-to-month, unless terminated by either party, upon at least thirty (30) days advance written notice, or unless terminated pursuant to the provisions of the Company's tariff, as may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Full Requirements Service

In exchange for the opportunity to participate in this Program, Supplier agrees to deliver gas to Company on a firm basis, on behalf of Supplier's participating customers. If Supplier fails to deliver gas in accordance with its aggregation customers' full service requirements for natural gas, Company shall supply natural gas temporarily to the affected aggregation customers, and shall bill Supplier in accordance with those tariff provisions set forth in Section VII, as may be amended from time to time.

Columbia shall operate its distribution system in a nondiscriminatory manner, without regard to the confirmed source of supply of the Customer or its Supplier.

ARTICLE V

Supply Co-Management Defined

Company's aggregation service requires that Supplier, as a participant in the Program, accept supply co-management responsibility as defined hereinafter, as a condition of its participation in this Agreement.

Supplier agrees to deliver firm gas supplies in accordance with those tariff provisions set forth in Section VII of the Company's tariff, as may be amended from time to time, and must agree to pay all charges assessed by Company as set forth in the Company's tariff.

In the event Supplier discovers or determines that it may not be able to deliver gas supplies into Company's designated Pipeline Scheduling Points, as required by the Company's tariff and this Agreement, it shall immediately provide notice by telephone and by fax to Company of such potential failure.

Supplier shall also be required to balance on an annual basis as of each March 31st its gas deliveries into Company's system with the actual overall usage levels of each of Supplier's Aggregation Pools, as specified in Section VII of the Company's tariff, as may be amended from time to time.

Option 2. Cash out = Twelve month sum of the products Monthly imbalance * TCO Monthly Index Price

If the Supplier must pay Columbia as a result of under-deliveries, then the payment shall be increased by a factor equal to (1 + Gross Receipts Tax Rate).

Supplier is in default of its obligations under Columbia's Customer CHOICE program if any of the conditions occur and related procedures and charges are set forth in Section VII of the Company's tariff, as may be amended from time to time. In the event of default of Supplier the Company may suspend or terminate Supplier's participation in Columbia's Customer CHOICE Program pursuant to those terms and conditions set forth in Section VII of the Company's tariff, as may be amended from time to time.

In the event that Supplier files a petition for relief under the federal bankruptcy laws, or Supplier's creditors file an involuntary bankruptcy petition, during the term of this Agreement, and this Agreement has not been terminated for non-delivery of gas supplies, then Supplier shall cause a notice to be filed with the federal bankruptcy court having jurisdiction, and within ten (10) days of bankruptcy court's issuance of an order for relief shall take all actions necessary to declare its intentions with regard to assuming or rejecting this Agreement. Failure to file and take the required action within said ten (10) day period will constitute notice that Supplier intends to reject this Agreement.

If this Agreement is terminated due to non-delivery of supplies by Supplier, or if Company is notified of Supplier's intention to reject this Agreement in accordance with federal bankruptcy laws, then Company shall notify Supplier's customers of such termination and shall return all of Supplier's customers to Company's sales service. Company shall also immediately determine whether or not any capacity previously assigned to Supplier must be returned to Company, based upon a determination of its necessity for service to such customers.

ARTICLE XIII

Force Majeure

Neither of the parties hereto shall be liable in damages to the other, except for those conditions identified in Section VII of the Company's tariff, as may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE XIV

Title and Warranty

Supplier warrants that it will, at the time of place and delivery, have good right and title to all volumes of gas delivered on its behalf, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and claims whatsoever, and that it will indemnify and hold the Company harmless for all suits, actions, debts, accounts, damages, costs, losses, or expenses including reasonable attorney fees, arising from or out of the adverse claims of any or all persons relating to or arising from said gas.
